The family of Avelicia Salazar wishes to convey their gratitude and appreciation for the help we received at our time of need. We thank all of you. May our Lord’s Blessing be yours always, from Thomas, Priscilla, Monica Salazar and the Salazar and Johnson Grandchildren.

St. Augustine Parish will be having Lector Training for new lectors on Saturday December 10, 2016 from 9:00am to 12:00pm. All interested persons must have received the following sacraments: Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation. Current Lectors may also attend this training session.

For your reflection, today’s readings are: Isaiah 2:1-5; Romans 13:11-14; Matthew 24:37-44.

The Jesus who is born in time and history is also the Christ who will come in glory to judge all. The season of Advent begins today with a call to perseverance and vigilance, as we prepare, not just to celebrate the historical event of the birth of Jesus of Nazareth, but also to celebrate our central belief that Christ will come again in glory to judge all humanity. Our readings are chosen to help us reflect on this great truth and to be prepared for the coming of Christ.
